Dedicated In Memorium

DAWN MARIE FELLOWS

June 4, 1964 — August 22, 1978

On August 22, a young life left.
It left for a better place,
A place of peace and tranquility.
Now Dawn no longer hurts.
With all her pain,
she tried not to let anyone know she hurt.
Wherever she is now, she is no longer hurting.
She will always be missed.

Higgins Junior High School

PEABODY, MASSACHUSETTS 01960

EDWARD J. O'CONNOR
PRINCIPAL

The opening page of your YEARBOOK offers me the one special opportunity to extend my best wishes and congratulations to all those who will graduate in the CLASS of 1979. After you leave us, the Higgins Junior High School will graduate fewer students each year as our enrollment continues to decrease.

I would like you to recall that during this school year 1978-1979, all of us are enduring and adjusting to the problems which have been with us for a year or more. Vandalism, conserving energy and the rising prices of food and fuel oil are just a few of the issues which are plaguing our citizens, our parents, our lawmakers and our student body. It appears that the above named problems will not disappear quickly in the days and years ahead; they will be your challenges and opportunities to which you must find answers which are reasonable, workable and acceptable. As an example, your recent petition to restore the school library was read and acted upon by our local public officials. They are now meeting and arranging a workable plan to reestablish our library facility.

This YEARBOOK and its many pictures will be full of memories for you. It will become more valuable and meaningful as the years pass by and all you have left are these few pictures of your teenage years spent at the Higgins. Indeed, our thanks go to Mr. Osborne, the Yearbook Advisor and his staff, who have labored long and hard to bring you this book of memories.

With your Teachers, Counselors, and Unit Directors, I wish you every success as you move ahead in life. May I close this message with a poem that I read recently:

MAY YOU HAVE

Enough happiness to keep you sweet,
Enough trials to keep you strong,
Enough sorrow to keep you human;
Enough hope to keep you happy;
Enough failure to keep you humble;
Enough success to keep you eager,
Enough friends to give you comfort,
Enough wealth to meet your needs,
Enough enthusiasm to look forward,
Enough faith to vanquish depression
Enough determination to make each day better than yesterday.

Class Will ...

Glen Schuster leaves his spontaneous answers.
Cheryl Messina leaves her charm with the teachers and unit directors.
Lisa Morin leaves her wiggle.
The girls basketball team leaves their fluorescent shorts.
The boys basketball team leave their win over Kennedy to the upcoming boys.
Bobby Melville leaves his leather.
Dick Medina leaves his drawing ability after three years in Mr. Pinho's class.
Jane Coviello and Sue Keegan leave their first period walk arounds.
Jackie Loughlin leaves her football queen title to an eighth grader.
Helder Braz leaves his track sneakers.
Chris Anasoulis leaves his alligators.
Quarterback, Ronnie Williams leaves his passing ability.
Chris Rapheal leaves "China" forever.
Mr. Bianco's 7th period class leaves "A" house hall quiet.
The "Oklahoma" cast leaves the Higgins stage forever.
Kim Lucas leaves her basketball sneakers.
Steve Geary leaves his camera for the next yearbook photographer.
Jenny Sheppard leaves her accent aigu.
John Tracchia leaves his bragging skills and tough thoughts.
Everyone leaves Mr. Phillips . . . alone.
Brian Derrivan leaves his weird noises, which we still don't know where they come from.
John Coombs leaves the other team's basket . . . alone.
Cindy "Charlie" Shaw leaves her temper to an unlucky eighth grader.
The 9th graders leave Mr. O'Connor's speeches to all the lucky 7th and 8th graders.
Melanie Manos and Wendy Champigny leave Mr. O'Shea's office forever.
Debbie Bowler leaves her 48 inch smile.
Jim Mannion leaves his "Double Live Gonzo" album.
Jimmy Christman leaves his hair to Mr. LeShana.
Margie Slawnwhite leaves her "no way".
Pam Devlin leaves her legs to Mrs. Heil.
Mrs. Molloy's 7th period class leave her forever and ever . . .
The ninth grade class leave Higgins forever . . . (well, most of us).
The yearbook staff leaves a big thanks to Mr. Osborne and everyone who helped us write this book.

EDWARD J. O'CONNOR
PRINCIPAL

July 1, 2004

Dear Class of 1979,

Sorry you missed our twenty-fifth class reunion, but here's the latest news on your old classmates:

David Kallery has written a best selling book on dieting, while Debbie Bowler has taken the women's national bowling title once again this year. Andy Diskes is making a bundle in the record business, and Helder Braz' lingerie stores are thriving.

Marriages were a popular subject that evening. Cookie Keegan married a real crumb, Peachy Dullea's husband is a real fruit, and Lisa Stone's marriage is on the rocks. Sue Pepper's marriage is hot, while Kristen Burns' is finally cooling off. Duchess Colclough married into royalty.

Fred Vlasuk and Jimmy "Pickles" Christman just signed a million dollar contract with Mr. Dill. Glenn Schuster runs a shoe outlet, Ilene Garber is a partner in a baby food co. Beth Ring works for the telephone Co., and Dawn Connolly has been successful in the candy business.

Lisa Drinkwater installs water purifiers, Todd Butcher owns a meat market, and Scott Afrow is a hair dresser. Robbie Hamilton is the mayor of a town and Karen Snow is in Alaska.

Pooh Cronan is making a bundle on teddy bears, while John Tracchia is working on the railroad. Lintus Moten explores volcanoes, Dennis Yeo owns a yo-yo factory, Shelly Broughton sells sea shells by the sea shore, and Laurie Sargent was just promoted to a General in the army. Bill Cook is studying to be a chef and George Trainer is now taming lions in Africa.

Some of the teachers were there. Mr. Carr walked and Mr. Rogers sang "Won't you be my neighbor". Mrs. Miller supplied the cheer, and Mr. Cameron took pictures.

Sincerely yours,
Yearbook Staff
